BIO

Kassem Mosse first spread under-the-radar shockwaves with his debut on queer-collective label Mikrodisko in 2006, surprising a curious scene with his dusty, smothered, foggy productions. Over three critically acclaimed full-length solo albums (Workshop 19 (2014); Disclosure (2016); Chilazon Gaiden (2017) he has evolved his style by stripping it bare, exposing its core, while simultaneously managing to extract warm free-flowing jazz and avant-garde characteristics. Besides operating his Ominira imprint, Mosse is frequently associated with labels such as workshop, Honest Jon's and The Trilogy Tapes. As a DJ Kassem Mosse blurs the lines of electronic dance music; jacking beats mixed up with acid house, Dance Mania-trax and beyond - being a well-seasoned selector he knows how to keep it fresh and captivating, interlacing the well known with the unknown. Mosse's latest collaboration is Zigtrax (w Tapes and Mix Mup) and the FIT+KM project (w Fit Siegel). He is also part of experimental duos MM/KM (w Mix Mup) and Dillon Wendel (w Beatrice Dillon).
